

E-commerce Policy Knowledge Base (Upgraded Dataset)

This dataset is a hybrid corpus combining realistic policy language inspired by major e-commerce platforms with synthetic documents designed to introduce edge cases, conflicts, and ambiguity. It is intended for building and evaluating multi-agent RAG systems for customer support resolution. All documents are structured to support citation-based retrieval and grounded responses.

- Duties/taxes are the responsibility of the customer unless stated otherwise.

Lost/Damaged Packages

- Claims must be raised within 48 hours of delivery for damaged items and 7 days for non-delivery.
- Evidence such as unboxing videos or photographs may be required.
- Resolutions include replacement, refund, or partial compensation based on investigation outcomes.

Document 7: Order Cancellation Policy

Customers may cancel orders subject to order status and seller fulfillment constraints.

Cancellation Windows

- Before shipment: cancellation is allowed with full refund.
- After shipment but before delivery: cancellation may be attempted but not guaranteed.
- After delivery: customers must initiate a return instead of cancellation.

Refunds for Cancellations

- Prepaid orders are refunded to the original payment method.
- COD orders are refunded via bank transfer or wallet.
- Refund initiation begins once cancellation is confirmed in the system.

Seller Constraints

- Marketplace sellers may have stricter cancellation cutoffs.
- Custom-made or made-to-order items cannot be cancelled once production begins.

Document 8: Promotions & Coupons

This policy governs the usage of coupons, promotional discounts, and campaign offers.

Eligibility & Usage

- Coupons must be applied at checkout and cannot be retroactively applied.
- Stacking of coupons is not allowed unless explicitly stated.
- Minimum order value and category restrictions may apply.
- Certain items (e.g., electronics, gold, gift cards) may be excluded from promotions.

Abuse & Fraud Prevention

- Use of multiple accounts to exploit promotions may result in order cancellation.
- Orders flagged for abuse may have discounts revoked or accounts suspended.
- The platform reserves the right to modify or withdraw offers at any time.

Document 9: Disputes & Claims — Damaged/Incorrect Items

Customers can raise disputes for issues such as damaged items, missing items, incorrect products, or non-delivery.

Filing a Claim

- Submit claim within specified window (24–72 hours for damage; up to 7 days for other issues).

Digital & Final Sale

- Digital products and gift cards are non-refundable once delivered.
- Final sale items are not eligible for return or exchange unless defective.

Document 12: Policy Conflicts & Resolution Rules

This document defines precedence rules when multiple policies conflict.

Precedence Hierarchy

- Regional regulations override platform policies where applicable.
- Category-specific policies override general return policies.
- Seller policies apply for marketplace orders unless they violate platform standards.

Conflict Examples

- A seller denies return within 7 days, but platform policy allows 10 days → platform policy prevails.
- Perishable item delivered late: general return allowed, but perishable exception denies return → perishable rule prevails.
- International shipment delay: regional customs rules override standard delivery SLA.

Escalation

- Unresolved conflicts escalate to platform arbitration.
- Customers may be offered goodwill credits where policy ambiguity exists.
